Who this course is for

Our ICAP for Managers is for managers who want to transform their communication skills. It's suitable for both individual managers and whole management teams.

The course is a condensed version of our full ICAP. It will help you negotiate the sometimes conflicting role you have working with both customers and the senior leadership team.

It will also help you develop your communication and leadership skills so you can take your career to the next level.

Who these courses are for ICAP for Managers is not for the faint-hearted. To succeed, you need to commit to the full course and have a willingness to work hard.

To benefit from ICAP for Managers you should either be a native English speaker or have English language skills at Upper Intermediate level or above*. If you need to improve your English skills before you take part, we run bespoke English Immersion courses.

 Language skills defined by The Common European Framework for Language (CEFR)*

What to expect

ICAP for Managers runs as a one-week residential course.

Throughout the course we'll challenge your assumptions, explore your personal values and ask you to consider your own learning, experience and ability.

We'll define what it means to be an Innovative Communicator and explore the importance of self-awareness when communicating with others. We'll look at the impact the global business landscape has on managers and at the skills you need to inspire others.

Once you've completed the programme you'll be an Innovative Communicator, with all the advantages this brings.

You'll be able to push your own boundaries. You'll be able to communicate in a way that develops meaningful relationships and builds a loyal team.

And you'll be at the heart of a movement that is putting humanity, integrity and soul back into business.

We plan each course around the needs of the participants and our pricing reflects this.

Therefore please get in touch for more information about the cost of your course.
